FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FEDERAL WAY, WASHINGTON (November 4, 2008) – The Washington Youth Soccer Board of Directors is officially announcing the resignation of Mr. Todd McGann, who has been the association's full-time Executive Director, effective the 28th of October. Mr. McGann held the association's highest staff leadership position in the organization in recent years and is now pursuing a new professional direction. Washington Youth Soccer will seek a suitable replacement with a regional and national-level executive search without delay.

Washington Youth Soccer and Mr. McGann have parted company amicably after meeting very recently and the association wishes Mr. McGann nothing but the best wishes on his future professional and career endeavors after his years of service to the sport of soccer here in Washington state.

If you need any assistance, have a scheduled activity that was with the Executive Director or have questions, please contact the office at (877) 424-4318 and the staff will put you in touch with the proper individual who can assist you with your business and soccer needs.
